

How road halo works:

Accused of a motoring offence

Call our specialist legal help line

Let our specialist Solicitors take a look

Help protecting your Driving Licence...

Drivers facing speeding tickets, allegations of careless driving, or claims of other motoring offences, may struggle to deal with what can be a confusing whirlwind of paperwork, legal processes and police interviews. Without the right advice and assistance many of those drivers may risk making uninformed decisions that make an already difficult situation even worse.

Providing access to specialist legal advice, a helpline operated by motoring law experts, and up to £25,000 of cover for any one claim's legal fees, Road Halo could help you to dispute fines and penalties, challenge cases wrongly brought against you, and secure professional representation in court

What exactly does it cover?

- Up to £25,000 for any one claim for a specialist motoring solicitor costs and disbursements
- A motor offence legal helpline for policy holders in connection with ALL motoring offences
- Representation by a specialist motoring solicitor
- Covers Incidents occurring anywhere in the United Kingdom, Channel Islands and the Isle of Man